

PAMLICO COUNTY PRIMARY SCHOOL

Title 1 Federal Program

Passionately committed to the success of EVERY child.

Pamlico County Primary School
Principal: Crystal Dixon
Assistant Principal: Robert Blount

What is Title 1?

TITLE 1 FUNDS

Title 1 funds are federal funds allotted to schools enrolling at least 40% of students who are identified as low-income. These funds are used to assist schools in helping students meet rigorous academic standards.

At Pamlico County Primary School, Title 1 funds are used for teacher and teacher assistant salaries, tutoring services, parent involvement and information sessions, and professional development for our teachers and staff.

YOUR ROLE IN A TITLE 1 SCHOOL

Parents and guardians are an important part of our Title 1 program and vital to the success of our students. As an active part of our Title 1 program you can:

- Help develop our Parent Involvement Policy
- Collaborate with teachers
- Attend parent workshops
- Request teacher professional qualifications
- Support continuous school improvement
- Volunteer at PCPS
