Protection

As a member, you will get unlimited access to trained and experienced staffers who know how to protect your due process rights and assist with resolving professional concerns BEFORE they become a lawsuit!

"ACSA rocks! I shared concerns with my member assistance and legal support representative and she walked me through the necessary steps to achieve the resolution that I wanted. I am new to ACSA. If the stellar advocate is any indication of your team, I will stay with ACSA until I retire. Thanks!"

ACSA's weekly EdCal newspaper can keep you abreast of legislation and other hot topics in education, current job vacancies, and recognition to your colleagues who are doing great things all over the state.

"I have always found Leadership Magazine to be a valuable resource in my work as a school site administrator. It is so helpful to learn how others approach problems and find solutions to the many challenges we face as educators."

— Katherine Baker, Principal, Palo Alto USD

Our website is a great resource for information and is the place to search for current jobs available, best practices, position papers, legislation and policy information, and information about upcoming events. Connecting with Colleagues

Tap into some of the best minds in the industry—your peers!

ACSA Online Community – Participate in online discussions and idea exchanges covering all areas of school management. Conversations are between members only and, unlike LinkedIn and Facebook, the ACSA community is for school administrators and is completely free of advertising and vendor presence.

Leadership Opportunities – ACSA members have the privilege of serving on leadership groups at either a local or statewide level with their peers. At the local level, member leaders work closely with their colleagues in surrounding districts to address the needs of their constituents, while at the state level, volunteer leaders comprise ACSA's committees and councils and are issue-oriented or focus on a specific job-alike. Not only does your participation help provide direction and shape for the organization, it is a successful way to build those important relationships with colleagues nearby and across the state.

Member Events – members get an opportunity to attend local functions that can help you build on existing connections or help you make new ones.

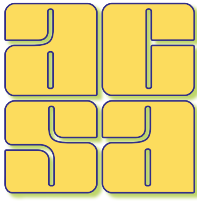

Plus...

- FREE $10,000 Accidental Death & Dismemberment coverage (automatic coverage when you join)
- Timely email alerts to keep you up to speed on trends and issues happening across the state
- Family entertainment discounts to Disneyland and other theme parks, movie tickets and more!
- Provided by our partners at VALIC: Complimentary financial planning – a $500 value!
- Provided by our partners at California Casualty: Competitive member's-only auto and home insurance rates.
