

Partnership for Prescription Assistance

CLIMB ABOARD...

Need help getting the medicines your doctor prescribes?
If you are uninsured and financially struggling, you may qualify for programs that provide free or nearly free prescription medicines.

There is a fast and convenient way to see if you may qualify...
The Partnership for Prescription Assistance "Help Is Here Express!"

3rd Avenue and Union Avenue
(near Brookdale Community College)
Long Branch, NJ
Friday, February 20, 2009
1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

This event is FREE and open to the public.
The "Help is Here Express" is equipped with computer terminals and mobile phones so people can find out if they may be eligible for help getting their prescription medicines.
Specialists will be aboard to make sure your application process is quick and easy.

For more information, please contact Lucy Montgomery at 215-766-7951.

Be sure to know the medicines you take when you visit the bus.

The Partnership for Prescription Assistance is sponsored by America's Pharmaceutical Research Companies

Event sponsored by Monmouth County's Mobilizing Through Planning and Partnerships (MAPP) committee, a coalition of agencies dedicated to improving community health
