

Tahitian Dream

By King H. 5th

Have you ever thought about going to Tahiti? More importantly, going to Bora Bora? If so, I'm the one to ask about it. During spring break, my mother, brother, and I went there. It is so beautiful. The water there is blue and the people there are so nice. Let's dive in. The first hurdle is getting there. First, we had to take a flight from Dallas to LAX. Second, we had to take a flight from LAX to Poppett. Third, we had to take a plane from Poppett to Bora Bora. Finally, we took a boat to the Four Seasons Hotel. This is where our journey really began. When we arrived, the amazing staff took us to our overwater bungalow. After settling in, we jumped off the deck into the blue lagoon. Then we went to the kids' club. We got to play basketball, tennis, and badminton. We went kayaking, stand up paddle boarding and swimming. Additionally, we went on a snorkeling excursion. It was fun. We saw schools of colorful fish, eagle and manta rays, sea urchins, and sea cucumbers. The weirdest thing of them all were the sea cucumbers. They are snake like figures that don't bite. There are two types of sea cucumbers. The brown ones sting. The black ones don't sting. The differences are the black ones are short and look like cucumbers. The brown ones are long and look more like snakes. That was my exiting vacation in Bora Bora. I believe it was a blessing. Just to be able to fly on a plane is a blessing. Tahiti is an amazing place. I would love to go again. I would also like to thank my mother and God for this wonderful experience. This trip is something I will never forget in my entire life. It was truly amazing.

The Twin Edition

By Jordan W. & Gia S. 5th

Gia and I had the pleasure of interviewing 2nd graders, Miss Camryn and Miss Olivia P. We asked them, "What are you most proud of?" Camryn replied, "That I have a twin." and Olivia said, "That I'm turning nine." Then we requested, "What's your first memory?" Camryn said, "When Olivia had to write my Y's in Pre-K," and Olivia replied, "My Pre-K teacher." Next, we questioned, "What was the most exciting thing you've ever done on a dare?" Camryn said, "Go on a crazy, huge, and scary waterslide at Epic," and Olivia said, "Drink hoes water." After we queried, "Who's your hero?" They both answered, "My Dad." Then we asked, "Would you rather talk it out or fight?" They both said, "Talk it out." We then inquired, "How do you feel about being twins?" They both answered, "Good, great! It just feels like we're regular sisters with the same birthday." Next we asked, "What's your worst nightmare?" Camryn said, "Riding a bike down a mountain," and Olivia answered, "Clowns!" Our last question was, "What's your favorite subject?" Camryn replied, "Writing," and Olivia said, "Writing, reading, and art." Gia and I had a crazy fun time interviewing Camryn and Olivia.

HUDDLE WHAT?

HUDDLE UP

By Collin K. and DJ B. 5th

Huddle Up is a 5th grade boys group. The purpose of this group is to teach the boys how to be better boys and mature as they become men like the Huddle Up teacher, Coach Reese. Coach Reese has taught us how to treat people, how to be courteous, and how to have fun at the right time. We share things that are serious, and we also learn things that are fun. During Huddle Up time, we talk about making good choices not only at school but in life. Coach Reese has dedicated time in teaching us how to give back to the community by going to Bonton Farms, where we volunteered on a Saturday. We've also attended Maverick games and watched movies. Huddle Up has helped us become better students both at school and in the community!

Summer Fashion

By Jannah M. & Aaralyn B. 5th

Summer is coming! You can be very creative with your clothes at this time of the year. You can rock summer dresses with jean jackets. Colors like pink, yellow, orange, green, light blue, teal and red really look good in the summer. Denim and jean pants and shorts look good as well. Those are some fun fashion tips for the girls. Now for the boys, you can rock some shades with some black or blue jeans. You can also rock out with a polo shirt. So that's some fashion advice for you and your peeps! We hope we helped get you ready for the summer.

Home Team Sports

By Ellis H. 5th

Have you heard of the Dallas Cowboys? If not, you need to watch more sports! The Dallas Cowboys are our home football team. They have 5 Super Bowl wins: 1972, 1978, 1993, 1994, and 1996. This team was founded by Jerry Jones in 1960. Their mascot is "Rowdy"- the team's official mascot since 1996. You might know some of the team's roster like running back, Zeke Elliot or quarterback, Dak Prescott. We hope the Cowboys have a great winning season this year!

Jazzy Jazzlyn

By Asira M. & Chloe R. 6th

We recently interviewed 4th grader, Jazzlyn. We first asked her what college she would like to attend.

She replied, "Baylor University." She later told us that her favorite sport is basketball and her dream is to become a lawyer someday. We then asked her what she wants to be when she grows up. She said, "Rich!" She told us that her favorite flavor of ice cream is chocolate. We asked her, "What is one thing you would like the world to know about you?" She said, "My name." She told us that if she had to change her name, she would change it to "Cookie". Finally, we asked her if she could see the future for one minute, what would she want to see? She said, "I would want to see where I will be going in life." We enjoyed our time with Jazzlyn!

World of Cubes

By Khalil H. 6th

Almost everyone is familiar with Minecraft. However, if you don't want to spend money buying it, just get World of Cubes. World of Cubes is a mod of Minecraft, but it's free. This is more reasonable than spending $7.00 for a game. You can play with your friends all around the world. You still have the option of playing either survival or creative. You can build houses or play in different worlds, and you can even save your progress. These are only a few reasons why World of Cubes is an inexpensive alternative and a good game to get and play. Have fun creating!

United Korea?

By Ray W. 5th

Kim Jung Un has finally agreed to make peace with South Korea. They have agreed to work to remove all nuclear weapons from the Korean Peninsula.

He is also willing to begin talks with the United States within the year. At a recent summit meeting, the leaders vowed to negotiate a treaty to replace a truce that has kept an uneasy peace on the divided Korean Peninsula for more than six decades. A peace treaty has been one of the incentives North Korea has demanded in return for dismantling its nuclear program. The world will watch and wait for the summit meeting between President Trump and Kim Jong Un.
