SUMMER PROGRAMS BULLETIN

This Summer Programs Bulletin serves only as a means of circulating information not as a program endorsement, and it is not a comprehensive list of all possible summer programs. Entries are listed in alphabetical order. Some programs are highly selective, accepting only those students who meet specific academic standards; other programs are open to those who apply and pay the fees on a first-come/first-served basis. Some programs offer scholarships which usually have an earlier application deadline. To receive an application and/or current program information, call the number listed at the end of the entry or visit the website
