

4434 – Holidays

The Board of Education will compensate support staff members for holidays in accordance with the holiday provisions of current valid negotiated contracts.

Compensation for holidays for non-association/non-union represented support staff members will be consistent with the holiday provisions for other support staff members represented by current valid negotiated contracts.

Unless specified in a current valid negotiated contract, if the recognized holiday falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the holiday will be determined by the Superintendent and published to staff accordingly.
