COTTAGE GROVE HIGH SCHOOL 2017 GRADUATION RATE INCREASES, TOP AMONGST LANE COUNTY COMPREHENSIVE HIGH SCHOOLS

Cottage Grove, OR, January 25, 2018 – For the third time in four years Cottage Grove High School has the highest four-year graduation rate of any comprehensive high school in Lane County. The data was released by the Oregon Department of Education today in their annual report of statewide graduation and drop out rates. Cottage Grove High School had 95.98% of their seniors graduate. The state average was 76.65%. The 2017 graduation rate also represented an increase from the 2016 graduation rate when CGHS saw 93.62% of their seniors graduate.

SLSD School Board Chair Alan Baas praised the work happening in South Lane. “All our staff in South Lane is working hard to ensure our kids succeed. From our elementary schools, to our middle school and at the high school level, it is clear that our priority is ensuring all our kids are succeeding and getting the support they need,” said Baas.
