

Some of the expectations of students in the AVID program:

1. Take at least one AP class both junior and senior years.
2. Maintain grades of C or better in all classes.
3. Participate in extra/co curricular activities and community service.
4. Utilize organizational tools including binders and planners.

What to expect in AVID at various grade levels:

9th grade- Get organized, take notes, speak publicly, work as a team, ask questions.

10th grade- Build off of 9th grade, practice for the PSAT, research colleges, work collaboratively.

11th grade- Build off of 9th and 10th grades, practice for the SAT, do in-depth college research.

12th grade- Build off of 9th, 10th, and 11th grades, work on college applications, research and apply for scholarships.

Some of the expectations of students in the AVID program:

1. Take at least one AP class both junior and senior years.
2. Maintain grades of C or better in all classes.
3. Participate in extra/co curricular activities and community service.
4. Utilize organizational tools including binders and planners.

What to expect in AVID at various grade levels:

9th grade- Get organized, take notes, speak publicly, work as a team, ask questions.

10th grade- Build off of 9th grade, practice for the PSAT, research colleges, work collaboratively.

11th grade- Build off of 9th and 10th grades, practice for the SAT, do in-depth college research.

12th grade- Build off of 9th, 10th, and 11th grades, work on college applications, research and apply for scholarships.

Some of the expectations of students in the AVID program:

1. Take at least one AP class both junior and senior years.
2. Maintain grades of C or better in all classes.
3. Participate in extra/co curricular activities and community service.
4. Utilize organizational tools including binders and planners.

What to expect in AVID at various grade levels:

9th grade- Get organized, take notes, speak publicly, work as a team, ask questions.

10th grade- Build off of 9th grade, practice for the PSAT, research colleges, work collaboratively.

11th grade- Build off of 9th and 10th grades, practice for the SAT, do in-depth college research.

12th grade- Build off of 9th, 10th, and 11th grades, work on college applications, research and apply for scholarships.