

RICHARD J. GREEN

Education: 1962 Graduate of Thomas W. Harvey High School. Participated in Football, Basketball, was Class Vice President, Student Body President, Football Co-Captain, Key Club Vice President, and Leaders' Forum President. He was a member of the Central Committee, the Athletic Board, W.M.P.W. Scholarship Club, Key Club, Buckeye Boys' State, and National Honor Society.

Career Service:

Vice President in charge of design for Stubbins and Associates in Cambridge, Massachusetts

Visiting lecturer at many universities in the United States and at the University of Mexico

1983- elected President of Stubbins and Associates

1992- elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Stubbins and Associates

Designed the Omnimax Theater at The Museum of Science in Boston, Massachusetts

Designed the One Cleveland Center in Cleveland, Ohio

Designed the Perry Square Building in Erie, Pennsylvania

Designed the Treasury Building in Singapore

His firm has designed libraries and laboratories for colleges throughout the world, has designed the U.S. Embassy in Singapore, a college in Kuwait, and a Trade Center in China.

Awards:

$10,000 ROTCH scholarship to visit the top architects of Europe

One of twelve people to win the LOEB scholarship to Harvard University

The "Richard Green Prize for Design Achievement" was established at North Carolina University in 1989 to recognize annually the top design graduate

1987 honor for Excellence in Architecture from the New England Region of the American Institute of Architects

Inducted:

Member of the Harvey Alumni Association

Distinguished Graduates

June, 1994