Parent Advisory Committee
A Committee Serving Special Needs Students

Reed City Area Public Schools is accepting applications for one seat on the Parent Advisory Committee. The PAC meets with the MOISD quarterly and reviews the special education plan developed by the intermediate school district that sets forth special education program and services to be delivered during the school year for which the plan was written.

If you are a parent of a special needs student who attends Reed City Area Public Schools and are interested in serving RCAPS on the Parent Advisory Committee, please submit your letter of interest to Steven Westhoff, Superintendent, 829 S. Chestnut Street, Reed City, Michigan 49677, prior to January 1, 2009.
