

Craig Moser, Ph.D.

Education:

1964 Graduate of Thomas W. Harvey High School – Extra-Curricular Activities: Basketball, Golf, Hall Guard, Key Club Treasurer, Spanish Club, Leaders' Forum, Advisory Group President, W.M.P.W. Scholarship Club, Varsity "H" Club, Class Cabinet, Committeeman, National Honor Society, and Quill and Scroll

1968 Graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University-Magna cum Laude – Bachelor of Arts in Economics

1972 Graduate of Ohio State University - Mershon Fellow – Master of Arts in Economics

1979 Graduate of Ohio State University – Ph.D. in Economics – Concentration on Soviet Economics

Career Experience: 1975 to the Present

- Professor of Economics
- Associate Academic Dean 1985 – 1995
- Director of Institutional Research 1991 – 1995
- Garfield Society 1995
- Organized and accompanied student trips to England and Russia
- Golf Coach
- Department Chairman
- Academic Advisor
- North Central Association Evaluator and Consultant to assess accreditation status of other colleges
- Travelled to Kyrgyzstan via State Department grant to teach public policy and economics to faculty and professionals at Osh State University in 2003

Community Service:

- Instituted and taught a Junior Golf Program at Sugar Bush Country Club in Garrettsville, Ohio for more than 20 years
- J.A. Garfield Local Schools Board of Education 1980 – 1987. Served as President
- Portage County Public Defenders Commission Member 1988 – Present
- Portage County Republican Party Vice Chairman
- Garrettsville Village Council Member 1992 - 2003. Served as President
- Garrettsville Village Mayor 2003 - Present

Inducted:
Member of The Harvey Alumni Association
Distinguished Graduates
June 4, 2009