

JOHN MARSHALL HIGH SCHOOL

School-wide Learner Outcomes (SLOs)

Graduates from John Marshall High School will become globally competent students who are able to use 21st century skills in order to:

- 1. Demonstrate inquiry-based skills such as critical thinking, reading and writing.
- 2. Communicate orally and in writing, in a variety of forms and contexts, using appropriate academic vocabulary.
- 3. Collaborate in groups, teams and classrooms to produce an outcome, or product.
- 4. Demonstrate creative efforts that allow diverse perspectives and incorporate feedback from peers and teachers.
- 5. Respect themselves and others by actively participating in their class, school, and community.