American Sign Language for Everyone?	presented by Dr. Sam Supalla	Sam Supalla	2013	http://youtu.be/QFxiRtd2WxQ	3:41
An Analysis in ASL: The Star-Spangled Banner	by RMDS 4th/In honor of the 200th anniversary of the "Star-Spangled Banner" by Francis Scott Key, the 4th and 5th graders of the Rocky Mountain Deaf School have analyzed and produced an educational skit plus several performances by incorporating specific ASL grammatical use such as space orientation, timeline, classifiers, palm orientation, directionality and more when signing the national anthem. It is crucial to understand the visual surroundings of the battle of Fort McHenry and the position of Francis Scott Key in order to use correct conceptual signs that would make sense to the ASL users. Please note that the skit is subtitled in English making it accessible for non-ASL signers and it may sometimes appear during or after the signers' messages. The song by Lee Greenwood is be played during the performances.5th graders with Mr. Bylthe and Ms. Wingfield	RMDS	2014	http://youtu.be/CCHrjh8Xuig	14:13

Then & Now: The Door Bell	Drew explains about Gallaudet University Archives and its role in preserving Deaf History and he starts a story about the doorbell. Drew shows the old doorbell that is located in College Hall. If someone uses the old doorbell to call a person, all people in the building would come out due to loud noise and vibration. To show what does a modern doorbell looks like now, Drew takes us to the dorm. The modern doorbell is simple and use a light to alert deaf people that someone is at the door. Then & Now: The History of TDD (TTY)	Drew shows the old TDD that weighted heavy that he cannot move the TDD. Drew then calls for his assistant, Werd to assist with describing the history of TDD and how it changed over time. Drew then shows different models of TDD and it got smaller and more light than previous models. Now, the rise of technology means that deaf people use AIM and pagers to stay in touch	Gallaudet	2001	http://videocatalog.gallaudet.edu/?video=16409	7:03
Then & Now: History of Sign Language	Drew explains about the history of Sign Language and how it was brought to America from France through the meeting of Laurent Clerc and Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet. Clerc taught Gallaudet French Sign Language and in turn, Gallaudet taught Clerc English. Signs developed from Martha's Vineyard near Cape Cod, Massachusetts were brought to American School for the Deaf where they merged into LSF and became old American Sign Language. In 1920s, Alexander Graham Bell introduced the oral method that bans the use of sign language, which caused it to decline until 1955. Dr. William Stokoe, the dean for English department recognized and wrote a book, Sign Language Structure of American Sign Language. How Can We Help the Earth?	After the PreKindergarten class had a great in-depth discussion about the Lorax book, the students came up with different ways they can help the Earth. The teacher asked the students to create an individual Vlog without any assistance from the teacher explaining how they can take care of our Earth. Circulatory System	The Circulatory System is responsible for transporting materials throughout the entire body. It transports nutrients, water, and oxygen to your billions of body cells and carries away wastes such as carbon dioxide that body cells produce. It is an amazing highway that travels through your entire body connecting all your body cells.	Amy J. Rowley	2014	http://youtu.be/zQrJLnWA2M8	2:48	All Levels

Beyond Celebrating Diversity #1	Beyond Celebrating Diversity: Twenty Things I Can Do to Be a Better Multicultural Educator; 1. I can learn to pronounce each student's full name correctly. No student should feel the need to shorten or change her or his name in order to make it easier for me or anyone else to pronounce it. Being sure that I do not contribute to a student feeling she or he needs to do so is the first step toward being inclusive. more information - www.edchange.org	Dako Tiku, Bonnie Jo Morrison	2012	http://youtu.be/6nAlSrRKzmM	1:00	All levels, Professional development

Beyond Celebrating Diversity #5	5. I can reject deficit ideology—the temptation to identity the problem of outcome inequalities (such as test scores) as existing within rather than as pressing upon disenfranchised communities. I will always keep in mind at such disparities do not result from supposed deficiencies in disenfranchised communities, but usually are, instead, symptoms of systemic educational and social conditions. This means, as well, that I must find solutions to these problems that focus, not on “fixing” disenfranchised communities, but on fixing those conditions and practices which disenfranchise communities. ; more information - www.edchange.org	Martha Aguilar, Jennifer Hipskind	2012	http://youtu.be/0AgGWci49dc	:53	All levels, Professional development
Beyond Celebrating Diversity #6	6. I can teach about critical multicultural issues such as racism, sexism, poverty, and heterosexism. And despite false perceptions that younger students are not “ready” for these conversations, I will begin doing so at the youngest ages because students from disenfranchised communities already are experiencing these problems, and witnessing their parents or guardians experiencing them, at the youngest ages. ; more information - www.edchange.org	Maureen Yates-Burns, Doralynn Folse	2012	http://youtu.be/77VxpGRDEIQ	:54	All levels, Professional development

Beyond Celebrating Diversity #7	7. I can understand the relationship between intent and impact. Often, and particularly when I'm in a situation in which I experience some level of privilege, I have the luxury of referring and responding only to what I have intended, regardless of the impact I've had on somebody. I must take responsibility for and learn from my impact because most individual-level oppression is unintentional. But unintentional oppression hurts just as much as intentional oppression. ; more information - www.edchange.org	Sinju Engineer, Richard Horrell-Schmitz, Bonnie Jo Morrison	2012	http://youtu.be/35zU3G1CmKo	1:43	All levels, Professional development
Beyond Celebrating Diversity #8	8. I can reject the myth of color-blindness. As uncomfortable as it may be to admit, I know that I react differently when I'm in a room full of people who share many dimensions of my identity than when I'm in a room full of people who are very different from me. I must be open and honest about this reality, because those shifts inevitably inform the experiences of people in my classes. In addition, color-blindness denies people validation of their whole person. ; more information - www.edchange.org	Maurren Yates-Burns, Lorraine Flores	2012	http://youtu.be/0VcFB6C22QE	1:10	All levels, Professional development
Beyond Celebrating Diversity #9	9. I can keep in mind that some students do not enjoy the same level of access to educational materials and resources, such as computers and the Internet, as other students. I will be thoughtful, therefore, about how I assign homework.; more information - www.edchange.org	Martha Aguilar, Dako Tiku	2012	http://youtu.be/bA3khHcwU-c	:51	All levels, Professional development
Beyond Celebrating Diversity #10	10. I can build coalitions with teachers who are different from me in terms of race, sexual orientation, gender, religion, home language, class, (dis)ability, and so on. These can be valuable relationships for feedback and collaborative problem-solving. At the same time, though, I must not rely on other people to identify my weaknesses. In particular, in the areas of my identity through which I experience privilege, I must not rely on people from disenfranchised groups to teach me how to improve myself (which is, in and of itself, a practice of privilege). r; more information - www.edchange.org	Jenny Cantrell, Richard Horrell-Schmitz	2012	http://youtu.be/rNZ0zQtbzHQ	1:06	All levels, Professional development

Naming in American Sign Language	This lecture video was originally created for a course within the Masters in Sign Language Education graduate program for ASL teachers at Gallaudet University. In this video, I summarize Dr. Samuel J. Supalla's "The Book of Name Signs: Naming in American Sign Language" published in 1992. I also pose questions and share relevant anecdotes throughout the video.	Raychelle Harris	2013	http://youtu.be/70BzkmgJnrE	15:27

The Color of Fear	Eight North American men, two African American, two Latinos, two Asian American and two Caucasian were gathered by director Lee Mun Wah, for a dialog about the state of race relations in America as seen through their eyes. The exchanges are sometimes dramatic, and put in plain light the pain caused by racism in North America.		1994	https://youtu.be/GhGzUaEA8hA	1:30.05
