

Snap Words

(Words to Know in a Snap, Lists 1-10)

The snap word lists include the most common words in English. Many of these words cannot be sounded out because they do not follow decoding rules and, therefore, must be learned as sight words. The learning of the snap words in isolation does not make a fluent reader; however, it can help to boost a child's motivation and confidence. Students who memorize these words (or learn to read these words in a snap) and practice writing them have a good base for beginning reading and writing.

Kindergarten Snap Words

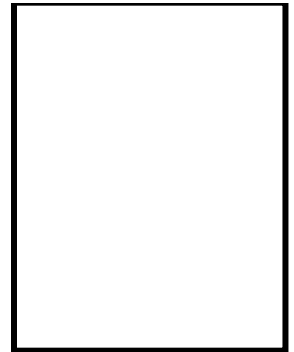

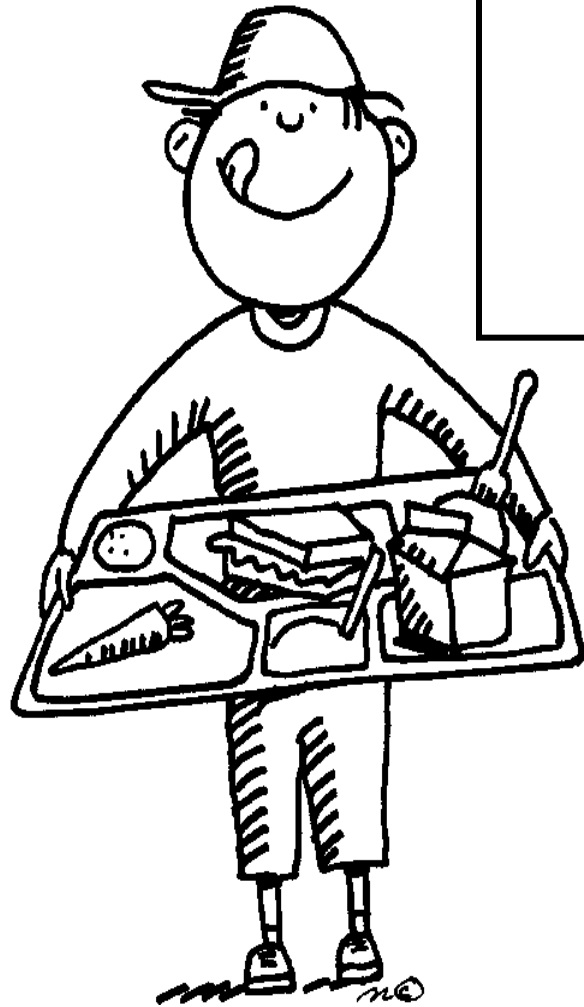

We hope every kindergartner's goal is to memorize the snap word lists. When your child knows one of the lists (go in order, please) "in a snap" (that means reading each word in about a second, not in any particular order), have your child give this sheet to our kindergarten aide on Friday for an assessment. Each time your child successfully reads all 10 words in a list, he/she will get to join the Snap Word Club. After each set of 5 lists, before moving on to the next list, your child will be asked to read those 50 words "in a snap" (no particular order!). At the end of each 9 weeks, the students that have reached list 10 (Hundred Word Club) will have a special surprise awaiting them. Please keep this sheet in your child's homework folder.

Kindergarten Snap Words

Congratulations! Your child has learned the first 100 Snap Words! On to the next (and final) 100, with the same process: when your child knows one of the lists (go in order please) "in a snap" (reading each word in about a second, not in any particular order), have your child let his or her teacher know on Friday for an assessment. After completing List 15, your child should prepare to read all 50 words from lists ` 11-15 "in a snap" in one sitting (no particular order!) before moving on to list 16. The same thing will occur upon completion of list 20. At the end of each 9 weeks, the students that have reached list 20 (Two Hundred Word Club) will have a special surprise awaiting them. Please keep this sheet in your child's homework folder.
