

The Spotswood District uses SafeSchools to provide training related to many of the state-mandated professional development topics. Staff can access the training modules using the link below. The user name is first initial and last name. Modules required according to an employee's district assignment (teacher, nurse, etc.) are populated and viewable when you log in. However, employees are able to complete any modules of interested listed in the library.

<http://spotswood.nj.safeschools.com/>