Mr. Reed,

We have the following RFI #01 regarding the above subject project:

1. Who is the existing/preferred HVAC Temperature Controls / BAS System contractor for this project site? Please provide the company name and contact person information.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully,

There is no existing control system. This is a simple control system the AC Unit supplier can provide the controls for this project. Controls firms like Johnson, Honeywell and Siemens also can provide the controls.
