

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENT

Wednesday, November 29, 2017

Our Thought for the Day is:

When we do the best we can, we never know what miracle is wrought in our life or in the life of another.

Students, there will NO homework club on Thursday.

Join us at the Frosty and Friends Holiday Party and Dance on December 7th at 2:15. Tickets will be sold during all three lunches and before and after school in Room 204 from December 4-6th. Tickets are $5 and include face painting, dancing, photo booth, and donut eating contest. Tickets purchased the day of the dance are $10. Snacks are available for $1 each. Join in the fun and buy your tickets early!

Did you know that next week is our Holiday Spirit week and the Frosty and Friends Holiday Party? Did you know you can win prizes for participating? All students who participate in the spirit days will receive a raffle ticket that will enter them in a drawing for fun prizes such as gift cards to Canes! 8th grade students can enter for a chance to win a free 8th grade field trip or free admission to the 8th grade dance. Please see the signs around campus or ask Mrs. Heilman or Mrs. Karch for details.

The spirit days are as follows:

Monday - Crazy Hair Day

Tuesday - Holiday Color Day

Wednesday - Ugly Sweater Day

Thursday - Holiday Hat Day and the Frosty and Friends Holiday Party dance after school

Friday - Holiday PJ Day.

November is National American Indian Heritage Month

Arnold Anderson was a Six Nations Tuscarora tribal member who worked as a chemical engineer on the Manhattan Project to help the United States develop the first atomic bombs. He was president and founding member of the American Indian Science and Engineering Society which was founded in 1977 with six other American Indian scientists.

Here is Ms. Belknap with today's Words of Wisdom.
