OFFICER REPORTS:

Jefferson Yin: The Board Of Education Meeting held Tuesday, December 13, consisted of the discussion of the a Single Plan for Student Achievement, where a discussion of a Leadership Plan is imposed to what is important. They have been working carefully with data, WASC, PTSA, and the rest of the community to achieve a single plan to ensure students succeed through a smooth transition into a four-year college. Additionally, a College Readiness Block Grant is put forth to give support to those students in need of aid, such as learning English and special education. They would like create more opportunities and aid to students with lower-income families. They also propose to offer Summer AP Boot Camps for first-time honors/AP students at the High School, in addition to a possible Summer session to easily smooth middle-schoolers to the High School. In other new, SCAC has just concluded their Toy and Jacket Drive, filling up two Penske trucks.

Eryca Yamane: Boys Basketball participated and won three out of the four games in the San Dimas Tournament. Unfortunately they lost their first game in the La Canada Tournament on Tuesday. Girls Basketball won three out of five games in the South El Monte Tournament, but won their first two games in the San Dimas Tournament. Boys Soccer won the Winter Cup for the second year in a row.
