

ST. DOMINIC HIGH SCHOOL
CODE OF CONDUCT
FOR ATHLETICS & STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Dear Student & Parent:

Participation in extracurricular and co-curricular activities is an important part of the educational process, both academically and socially, at St. Dominic High School. Such participation is a privilege and brings with it a responsibility which requires an extra commitment, both academically and otherwise, when representing St. Dominic High School. Standards of behavior are necessarily high and a willingness to adhere to such standards is a condition for participation in athletics and student activities. Consistent with these standards, and as a continuing condition of eligibility, students participating in extracurricular and co-curricular activities, as well as parent(s) guardian(s), are required to sign this contract which was developed by the Administrator.

Code of Conduct

The student acknowledge that he/she will abide by and be bound by the rules and regulations found in the 2017-2018 Code located in the school calendar as well as the terms of this contract. Any violations of the Code of Conduct which result in a disciplinary action and may also extend to a student's participation in extracurricular and co-curricular activities.

Attendance Requirements

A student must attend class/school by 11:00 a.m. to participate in that day's practice, event, and/or meeting.

Other Eligibility Requirements

Students who participate in extracurricular and co-curricular activities should recognize that they have an obligation to themselves, their teammates, and the school community to strive for excellence. As recognized representatives of their school, such students are expected to exhibit appropriate behavior during the season (activities) and during the off season in uniform, on campus or off campus. Thus, such students are expected to:

1. Dress in a manner consistent with school Code of Conduct regarding uniform code.
2. Understand and abide by the rules and regulations of the game/activity, respect the integrity and judgment of the officials, and exercise proper conduct; sportsmanship, citizenship, behavior, self-control and mutual respect for others at all times.
3. Use only appropriate and acceptable language, and refrain from using crude, abusive or vulgar language or gestures in dealing with other students, officials and spectators.
4. Attend scheduled practices, games and meetings, arrive on time, and participate in a cooperative and acceptable manner with respect to the coach/teacher/supervisor's expectations, training or other requirements.

5. Respect, properly care for and return all school property, lockers, equipment and uniforms issued by the school and personally return all items to the coach/teacher/supervisor immediately at the conclusion of the season or upon termination or participation in such activity.
6. Not engage in activities or actions which bring discredit to the school or athletic program.
7. Prohibit from all forms of substance abuse including but not necessarily limited to, the possession, use, distribution/sale or purchase of smoking and tobacco products or paraphernalia, drugs, or drug paraphernalia, performance enhancing substances and alcoholic beverages, whether illegal or look-alike drugs on or off school grounds.
8. Prohibit from staging or participating individually or collectively, in any type of hazing or related initiation ceremony in conjunction with any school activity or involving any person associated with the school, regardless of where it occurs.
9. Prohibit from verbal or physical harassment of fellow teammates or others during the school day or at school-sponsored events whether on or off school grounds.
10. Understand that participation in extracurricular and co-curricular activities is a privilege that should be valued, not a "right".

Discipline

Students who violate the basic expectations listed herein can expect to be disciplined relative to their participation in extracurricular and/or co-curricular activities. This may include, but not necessarily be limited to removal from a meeting, practice or game and/or suspension or removal from the activity or team by the coach/teacher/supervisor. Prior to imposition of any penalty, the principal designee, the building assistant principal and/or the athletic director will notify the student of the nature of the infraction.
