COMMUNICATION
ENROLLMENT: October 2016 3,795
September 2017 3,742
October 2017 3,743

PRESIDENT’S REMARKS - Mr. Levy thanked everyone in attendance for the evening’s Board meeting.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT - Dr. Kasun stated what he was thankful for the fantastic students, staff and Board of Education of the Freehold Township Schools.
DDES Asbury Park Press Student Voices Contest Winner – The Board of Education recognized Diana Pevzner for winning this contest in the Asbury Park Press.

Learning with Legos – Dr. Huguenin and Laura Cecilione presented the Board the Learning with Legos program that has been implemented at the Catena Elementary School. The presentation discussed the professional development that the Board support the previous year and some examples of how the program works in the classroom and how students are engaged.

Committeemen Cook and Ammiano addressed the Board and the public on the issue of holding District 1 voting at the Applegate Elementary School. The Committeemen discussed the legal parameters of moving the election to another site and that it was not the final decision of the Township Committee. A number of people suggested that the polling site move to the Pond Road Fire House but because of the size of the building it did not meet the legal guidelines to hold the election there. They stated that they would begin to work with the County to be able to move the elections out of Applegate to another location. The Board and public were appreciative of their efforts.

Dr. Kasun gave the monthly HIB report. There were 5 reports of HIB and all were confirmed as HIB events.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION – Michael Santise, 12 Hampton Drive, addressed the Board about his concerns about his daughter not receiving transportation to Barkalow Middle School.
