Sharing the Gift of Waldorf Education
Our Academic Year 2016 – 2017

The Waldorf School of Atlanta celebrates 30 years of sharing the gift of Waldorf education by preparing students to engage with their generation and the world.

1919
Stuttgart

After its founding in Stuttgart, Germany, in September 1919, the first Waldorf school grew rapidly. Children soon flocked to the school, whose parents sought more humane values and new educational methods after the ravages of World War I.

1986
Atlanta

The Waldorf School of Atlanta got its start 30 years ago in Grant Park. There, founding parent Katie Reily shared her interest in Waldorf education with other parents in the neighborhood and enlisted the support of Susan Jones, the school's founding teacher.

1992
Growing into the grades

For the first six years of the school's history, the Children's Garden preschool (as it was then called) grew with dedication and purpose. In 1992, the school added a first grade class, initially taught by Susan Jones.

2000
First graduates

The lead class continued through the years and went on to become our first graduating class in 2000.

2005
Our Decatur home

The Waldorf School of Atlanta acquired our current administration building, the early childhood classroom building, and five acres of land at 827 Kirk Road.

2006
Triple accreditation

The Waldorf School of Atlanta secured triple accreditation from AWSNA, SAIS and SACS. These accreditations were renewed in 2012 and will be renewed again in 2018.

2016 – 17
Year of celebration

Rather than commemorating this milestone with a single event, we celebrated throughout the year.

2014
Inman Park campus

We added early childhood classrooms at Inman Park United Methodist Church.

Our Vision

The Waldorf School of Atlanta embodies the ideals of Waldorf education:

The sanctity of childhood
An abiding sense of wonder
An evolving quest for truth

Our Mission

The Waldorf School of Atlanta develops in its students the will to become life-long learners by fostering in each student the ability to think with clarity, feel with compassion, and act with purpose in the world.

Annual Fund (gifts made from July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017)

It is with deep gratitude and heartfelt thanks that we acknowledge the many parents, grandparents, alumni parents, faculty, staff, and friends who generously contributed to the 2016–17 Annual Fund. It was a successful year for the Waldorf School of Atlanta. With 84% participation from our current families and 100% participation from board, faculty, and staff, we were able to raise more than $86,000. This spirit of giving demonstrates the deep commitment of the community.
