The Council on Aging - Orange County is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation, formed in 1973. The Council serves more than 75,000 vulnerable older adults in Orange County by directly assisting them in living safer, more dignified, and independent lives.

Council on Aging - Orange County
1971 East 4th Street, Suite 200, Santa Ana, CA 92705
Phone: (714) 479-0107 | Fax: (714) 479-0234
www.coaoc.org

ReConnect Socialization Services are provided by a county-wide Collaborative formed by Council on Aging - Orange County, Saint Anselm’s-Cross Cultural Community Center, and MECCA

Program funded by the County of Orange Health Care Agency, Prevention & Early Intervention Division

ReConnect Socialization Services Program
Empowering Orange County residents to sustain active and healthy lives
ReConnect Program

The ReConnect Socialization Services Program provides Orange County’s isolated adults opportunities to reintegrate into the community by incorporating healthy and meaningful activities to their regular lifestyles. The program’s goal is to help sustain emotional well-being through consistent exposure to reinforced healthy life patterns.

What to Expect

- Screening Services conducted by an intake specialist.
- Comprehensive in-home assessment administered by a case manager.
- Personalized socialization activities carried out by a life coach and trained volunteers.
- Access to community activities.

Activities are tailored to best suit participants’ specific needs and interests. These may include:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Support groups</th>
<th>Physical activities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Educational trainings</td>
<td>Home visitations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skill development workshops</td>
<td>Linkages to resources</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Services are available for 1-12 months at no cost to participants.

Who Qualifies

- 26 years of age or older
- Orange County residents
- Limited social support
- Ability to participate in community activities
- Experiencing loneliness

We speak your language

The Council on Aging - Orange County delivers culturally and linguistically competent services to multicultural communities in Orange County. Languages spoken from our staff include: English, Spanish, Vietnamese, Korean, Farsi, and Armenian.

How to Get Help:

To receive services or refer a participant to the Council on Aging - Orange County ReConnect Socialization Services Program, please contact the program intake specialist at:

714 - 479 - 0107
www.coaoc.org