Comparison of the CELDT to the ELPAC

California is in the process of transitioning from the California English Language Development Test (CELDT) to the English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC). The CELDT will continue to be administered until the ELPAC becomes operational. The table below shows a brief comparison between the CELDT and the ELPAC. For more information, see the CELDT to ELPAC Proposed Transition Timeline Web page.

CELDT	ELPAC
Aligned with the 1999 California English Language Development (ELD) Standards with five proficiency levels	Must be aligned with the 2012 California ELD Standards, which have three proficiency levels (Emerging, Expanding, and Bridging)
One test used for two purposes: initial assessment and annual assessment	Two separate tests for two purposes: (1) initial identification; and (2) annual summative assessment. The initial identification will be brief and locally scored.
Paper-pencil tests	Paper-pencil tests with a potential to transition to computer-based tests
July 1–October 31 Annual Assessment window	Annual Summative Assessment window to be a four month period after January 1 (proposed February 1–May 31), allowing for more pre-test instructional time

News and Tips for the ELPAC Administration

Field testing for the new ELPAC will begin in spring 2017. Field test administration information is available on the ELPAC Test Administration Web page. The Initial Assessment will be administered beginning July 1, 2018.

The first operational administration of the ELPAC will occur in the spring of 2018. Timeline information is available on the About Web page.

The Summative Assessment window will be a four-month window after January 1 (February 1–May 31).

The Initial Assessment window will be year-round (July 1–June 30).
