Lincoln Junior High band program reaches new heights

Lincoln Junior High's Band program has had a fantastic year and continues to blaze new trails under the direction of LJH Band Director Suzanne Beavers and Asst. Director Isabel Talley.

Tuesday, April 17th, was a record-breaking day for the program. For the first time in campus history, LJH took two bands to the UIL Spring Sight Reading and Ensemble Competition.

The LJH Concert Band received a 2nd division rating on both Stage and Sight Reading – a great accomplishment for their very first competition.

With the highest Stage scores ever received for an LJH band, the LJH Symphonic Band received a 2nd division rating on Stage, and a 1st division rating in Sight Reading.

Congratulations to the LJH band directors and to the students for their hard work and dedication.
