

Name _____

► Read the sentences. Circle the main verb. Underline the helping verb.

1. I have collected baseball cards since I was five.
2. Gail has collected hats for many years.
3. Many people have found things to collect.
4. I had thought about collecting stamps, but I changed my mind.
5. I have spent all of my money.
6. Sadie has made cookies to bring.
7. I have spent all of my money.

► Read the words under each line. Choose the correct helping verb to complete the sentence. Write it on the line.

1. Jimmy _____ brought his coin collection to school.
(have, has)
2. Angel _____ collected teddy bears.
(has, have)
3. Trudy _____ gone with her aunt to the museum.
(has, have)
4. I _____ not started a collection, yet.
(has, have)
5. I _____ thought about collecting books.
(have, has)
6. My mom _____ saved some of my favorite picture books.
(have, has)

► Read the sentences. Rewrite each sentence, adding the helping verb have or has.

1. Josh brought his bike to the store.

2. He bought a special box.

3. I used a box for my toy cars.