

Chamlian Armenian School Holds Annual Cultural Day

Community Youth November 10, 2016

Chamlian Armenian School held its annual Cultural Day on Nov. 6, 2016.

LA CRESCENTA, Calif.—Chamlian Armenian School's held its annual Cultural Day on November 6, 2016. Students, families and friends enjoyed a day full of student performances, festivities, food, shopping, and entertainment on the school campus.

The all-day event highlighted the school's commitment to the preservation and promotion of the Armenian culture and heritage. A student art exhibit was set up in the auditorium and on the playground were booths where one could buy Armenian themed items and foods. Inside the gym, students awed the audience with their beautiful performances including singing, dancing, recitation, and short plays. Chamlian's dedicated Armenian Department teachers worked diligently to prepare their students for this memorable exhibition of Armenian pride and culture.

The school's administration extends a special thank you to its dedicated Armenian Department teachers, the Parent Support Committee Cultural Day Committee members, and all the parents who volunteered their time and talent.
