

Latanya Gray is the Pre-k through 2 Assistant Principal at Seton Falls in the northeast Bronx. Her early years began in the Bronx where she attended elementary and middle school. Returning to the Bronx after Undergrad, she began teaching as a middle school ELA teacher by way of Teach for America. In 2011, she became an Assistant Principal in the Bronx at the same middle school where she had taught. In 2013, after becoming a mother, the opportunity presented itself to become an Assistant Principal at Seton Falls Elementary, her alma mater, and she took a jump! Ms. Gray has been with the Seton Falls Elementary staff for four years.
