

Ruth L.Hall,Ph.D.

Education:

1966 Graduate of Thomas W. Harvey High school

"Friendliest" in the senior Poll

Involved in Girls' Athletic Association, Band, Future Teachers of America, German Club, Scarlet Torch, Leaders' Forum, National Honor Society, and was the Senior Class Treasurer

1970 B.A. Psychology, Heidelberg College

1976 M.A. Clinical Psychology, Boston University

1979 Ph.D. Clinical Psychology, Boston University

Career Service:

Assistant Professor, Trenton State College

Psychologist, Private Practice

Senior Staff Psychologist, University of Pennsylvania Counseling Service

Assistant Director, Community Mental Health Center (CATCH)

Consultant to the Equity Training System for Philadelphia Public Schools

Consultant to the Boston Police Department

Women of Color coordinator for the Association for Women in Psychology

Past president, Delaware Valley Association of Black Psychologists

Member, American Psychology Association

Member, Association for Advancement of Applied Sports Psychology

Member, Who's Who of American Women

Research, Professional, and Community Interests:

Ruth Hall has worked in programs which focus on attitudes towards racism, sexism, and attitudinal disabilities. She has also worked in community mental health centers with mothers and children in at-risk development. Her research interests include women, African-Americans, and athletes. She is currently working towards a M.Ed. in sports psychology at Temple University. Ruth has accepted the challenge of Harvey by living the motto: "As the opportunity, so the responsibility."

Inducted:

Member of The Harvey Alumni Association

Distinguished Graduates

June 4, 1993